About the PDDG

The PDDG is a Sub-Group of RSC Macro Group UK. The aim of the group is to encourage open and unscripted discussion of all aspects of degradation, ageing, stabilisation and modification of polymers, and give younger researchers the opportunity/forum to present and discuss their work with an audience many of whom are distinguished within the field.

PDDG Officers/ Organising Committee:

Professor S. Al-Malaika,
Chairperson

Dr Mogon Patel,
Secretary

Professor Norman Allen,
Treasurer

CALL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

The PDDG committee invites paper/poster contributions for its next conference to be held in Sestri Levante, Italy, during 5-7 September 2011.

The committee particularly wishes to encourage younger scientists to participate (especially PhD students). With this in mind, there will be prizes for the best student poster contributions as judged by a scientific panel.

Registration

Take advantage of the available discounts by registering early.

Book your place at www.PDDG.org or alternatively complete and e-mail the attached registration form to the organiser, Dr Patel at mogon.patel@awe.co.uk.

The Registration fee includes full participation at the conference, reception, all lunches and conference dinner.

All delegates must provide evidence of registration in order to participate in this conference.

Delegates must organise their own hotel accommodation.
